

Police Sergeant

The Farmington Police Department is looking for a highly motivated, community oriented fulltime Police Sergeant. Starting salary is $70,000 with lateral transfer opportunities, a competitive benefit package, wage step increases, health club membership incentives, health insurance benefits, MPERS 20 year/no age Retirement Plan with COLA, educational tuition assistance, a uniform cleaning allowance and liberal overtime opportunities. Full-time certified officers from Maine are eligible for a sign on bonus of up to $8,000.

Farmington is a rural community, the seat of Franklin County, positioned to offer its residents and visitors a host of area recreational activities and home to the University of Maine at Farmington, a nationally recognized Liberal Arts college.

The Farmington Police Department has a rich history of law enforcement excellence serving its citizens since the early 1900's. From the humble roots of one night watchman to the current department of thirteen, the Farmington Police Department is a progressive and professional agency focused on education and excellent training.

Applicants interested in joining our "family" and carrying on the proud tradition must have at least 5 years of experience as a certified full-time police officer. Candidates will then be required to pass a written exam, oral board, polygraph examination, medical screening, psychological screening, and an extensive background check.

Please apply by sending a current resume, employment application and copies of pertinent certificates. Applications can be obtained at Employment\_Application\_112619.pdf \(farmington-maine.org\) or by contacting:
